

Intern needed for the TBLT Language Learning Task Bank!

Are you trained in TBLT? Are you passionate about increasing access to TBLT resources for language teachers around the globe? Are you interested in hands-on experience with language learning tasks? Are you looking to connect with others in the TBLT community?

The newly launched Task Bank is looking for an intern!

Duties include:

- Working with the Project Director and Advisory Board for task review and editing
- Creating a Task Bank presence on social media and relevant language learning outlets
- Collaborating with the IRIS-database.org team to pull tasks from IRIS for the Task Bank
- Networking with task-based language teachers and researchers worldwide
- Helping to update copy on Task Bank website
- Estimated 3-5 hours per week (flexible timing; all virtual)

Skills needed:

- Formal training in TBLT required (at least one course)
- Experience as a language teacher and/or language-related researcher
- Genuine love for language teaching and learning
- Superb attention to detail
- Dependable and timely completion of tasks
- Ability to work well alone and in a team
- Highly proficient in written and read English
- Proficient with computer usage

While we do not have funding to pay an hourly rate at this time¹, the IATBLT is able to pay the Task Bank Intern's registration to the IATBLT Biennial Conference (next one to be held in Innsbruck, Austria, 25-27 2021).

If interested, please send:

- CV
- Brief (no more than one page single-spaced) description of your TBLT experience, your vision for this position, and a sample task that has inspired your language learning, teaching, or research
- Via email to lgurzyns@indiana.edu with "Task Bank Intern" in the subject line
- Position is opened until filled; strongly encouraged to send materials by September 31st

¹ All of involved with the Task Bank are unpaid volunteers ☺
